SERIES/OPPONENT NOTES

- Thursday marks the 72nd meeting all-time between Tech and Tennessee State, with the Golden Eagles owning a 36-35 lead in the series.
- In Nashville, the series is deadlocked at 17-17 all-time. While TSU won the most recent match-up in the Gentry Center, Tech claimed each of the prior three contests in Nashville.
- The Tigers claimed victory in three of the past four tilts between the two programs, including both meetings last season.
- In last year's first contest, in Cookeville, Tennessee State broke the hearts of Golden Eagle fans with a 72-67 victory in overtime.
- After Jr. Clay hit a pair of free throws to put Tech up by three with 1.7 seconds to play, the Tigers went the length of the floor and banked in a game-tying triple at the buzzer to force the extra period.
- Clay stuffed the stat sheet in the loss, leading all scorers with 21 points while adding five rebounds, five assists and five steals.
- Keishawn Davidson added 14 points, six boards and four dimes while former Golden Eagle Hunter Vick produced 15 points off the bench.
- In the rematch in Nashville, Tech couldn't gain traction on the offensive end of the floor, shooting 29.9 percent from the floor, 11.1 percent from 3-point range and 57.1 percent from the charity stripe.
- Clay (below) led the purple and gold with 16 points and a career-high nine rebounds. Tujautae Williams chipped in 10 points in the 70-55 loss to the Tigers.
- Tech took home the win in this year's tilt in Cookeville, with Keishawn Davidson leading the way with a career-high 19 points, as well as six assists and two steals.
- Damaria Frankling added 16 points and four dimes while Marcus Hopkins accounted for 10 points and six boards.

TEAM NOTES

QUICK HITTERS

- The Golden Eagles couldn't overcome an elite, first-half shooting performance by Eastern Kentucky Monday, falling to the Colonels at home, 83-72.
- EKU fired at clips of 69 percent from the floor and 69.2 percent from 3-point range in the opening stanza, scoring a whopping 56 points.
- Jr. Clay scored a game-high 23 points on 10-for-16 shooting while Damaria Franklin added 16 points and six rebounds. Austin Harvell chipped in 11 points and five boards to the mix as well.
- In Tech's win over Eastern Illinois, the team compiled a whopping 25 assists on 28 made field goals, the team's highest total of helpers since dishing out 27 on Dec. 6, 2018 against Warren Wilson.
- At EKU, the Golden Eagles drilled 15 3-pointers in the contest, tied for the fourth-most in a single game in program history.
- Tennessee Tech earned its first win of the 2020-21 campaign by defeating SEMO 72-63 on Dec. 30, 2020, holding off a second-half surge by the Redhawks.
- The win snapped an 11-game skid for the Golden Eagles, the longest in program history, after going through arguably the toughest non-conference slate in the history of the team.
- A year after facing nine opponents who had won 20 games the previous season, Tech loaded up on a tough gauntlet yet again for the 2020-21 campaign.
- Six of Tech's seven non-conference opponents won at least 19 games a season ago, with No. 10-ranked Tennessee as the only team with less (17).
- Six of Tech's seven non-conference games came on the road, with the match-up against in-state rival Chattanooga the lone tilt in the Eblen Center.
- At the conclusion of its final non-conference tilt at Western Kentucky, Tech's seven foes not in the OVC had combined for a 44-10 mark in 2020-21.

FAST BREAK

John Pelphrey is one of just nine active coaches nationally (in Division I basketball) to have played in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 and coached (as a head or assistant coach) in the Final Four.

"QUOTABLE"

Memphis Assistant Coach Mike Miller on Pelphrey

"Coach Pelphrey is like family to me. He recruited me at Florida and was like a father figure to me. He was a crucial part of my development as a player and a person. Without his help I wouldn't have had the career I did. The school, the fans and the players are all lucky to have a person like Coach Pelphrey be a part of their new family."

BY THE NUMBERS

67 Number of double-figure scoring games in Jr. Clay's career, ranking him 14th in Tech history since 1970-71. His 50 through his FR & SO seasons were the most ever by a Golden Eagle.

21 Number of points from Damaria Franklin in his Tech debut vs. JSU. It marked the most by a Golden Eagle in his debut since Ty Allen scored 25 at USF on Nov. 9, 2013.

5 Number of known Tech players to post two career double-doubles involving different statistical categories (since 1984-85). Keishawn Davidson did so vs. Chattanooga.

- OVC opponents Austin Peay, Belmont and Murray State each compiled 21 or more wins a season ago and will square off with Tech twice this season, just adding to the incredibly challenging slate in 2020-21.
- Through six games, Tech already has more double-doubles (three) as it did all of last season (two).
- Tech was predicted to finish 9th overall in the 2020-21 OVC race in voting by the league's head coaches and SIDs. The Golden Eagles were selected to finish 8th in the OVC media poll.
- Last season, Jr. Clay and Keishawn Davidson became the first pair of Tech teammates to each total at least 100 assists in the same season since 2001-02. That year, Cameron Crisp dished out 122 dimes while DeAntoine Beasley doled out 104 assists.
- With an 83-70 win over Martin Methodist on November 9, 2019, Tech head coach John Pelphrey earned his first victory as the leader of the Golden Eagle program.
- Pelphrey, who was named the 13th head coach in Golden Eagle history in April, also earned career win No. 150 on the night, the same day the Tech football team earned its 150th victory in Tucker Stadium on the day they celebrated the 150th anniversary of college football.
- Both Davidson and Sylla were honored by the OVC on Nov. 11, picking up two of the league's first three weekly honors of the 2019-20 campaign. Davidson was named OVC Freshman of the Week while Sylla was recognized as the OVC Newcomer of the Week.
- It marked the first time since 2015-16 that Tech claimed two of the OVC's three weekly accolades. The last time it occurred was Feb. 1, 2016 when Torrance Rowe won OVC Player of the Week and both Ryan Martin and Hakeem Rogers shared OVC Newcomer of the Week honors.

MOLDING WITH CLAY

- Junior guard Jr. Clay spent his first two seasons in the purple and gold establishing a brilliant start to his Tech career, earning back-to-back All-OVC Second Team nods in 2018-19 and 2019-20, as well as an OVC All-Newcomer honor in 2018-19.
- He led the Golden Eagles in scoring and steals each of the past two seasons, including establishing the program's freshman record of 51 steals and breaking the mark of 48 previously owned by Stephen Kite (1982-83).
- Clay's start to his Tech career has put him on pace to join some of the program's all-

THE CODE

The Code is the process in which the players LEARN, GROWN and take on CHALLENGES. It is a conscious CHOICE they make to FOCUS their thoughts on what they can control in the PRESENT moment; which is the only place there is ACTION. They BELIEVE, "Sticking to The Code," is their COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE over their opponents.

The Code

1. Know your role and the responsibilities of your job; and why it is important to do it a certain way. Also, do your job to completion. Finish well!
2. Give maximum effort on a consistent and repetitive basis with mental and physical toughness.
3. Compete with a positive attitude that is always about taking care of your teammates and Tennessee Tech.
4. All of this has to be built on Trust and Belief. There has to be total "Buy-In" and alignment by everyone!

"QUOTABLE"

Head Coach John Pelphrey on The Code

"The most important thing for our players is to focus on their development as leaders, getting better as basketball players every day and establishing a competitive standard which we are going to have to play to in order to compete against good teams, like the ones on our schedule. The best way for them to do that is sticking to the The Code...Those are all areas of choice that take no talent. We have ownership of these things every day."

time elite performers. The Chattanooga native became the 37th member of Tech's 1,000-point club in the team's win over Tennessee State on Jan. 16.

- With 23 points against Eastern Kentucky, he passed Jerome Rodgers and Greg Bibb on Tech's career scoring list, rakning 24th all-time. He needs eight points to pass Herbie Merritt for 23rd and 13 points to pass Bobby Porter for 22nd.
- Only three other Golden Eagles scored more points through their freshman and sophomore campaigns than Clay, who begins 2020-21 with 833 points to his name.
- The other three players to score more all have their jersey hanging from the rafters of the Eblen Center, including Earl Wise (1,000 pts/1986-88), Stephen Kite (863 pts/1984-84) and Kenny Sidwell (833 pts/1954-56).
- He could also find his name among the top-10 all-time leaders in both assists and steals before the season ends. Clay requires just eight steals and 30 assists to crack the top-10 charts in program history.
- After struggling to put up just 11 total points in a four-game stretch early last season, Jr. Clay ran off 24 straight double-digit scoring performances to close out the 2019-20 campaign. That streak ranked as the fifth-longest in a single season by a Golden Eagle since 1970-71.
- John Best's 28 straight double-figure scoring performances during the 1992-93 season ranks as the longest in one season, accounting for every game played by Tech that year. Best strung together 44 straight double-digit scoring efforts dating back into the 1991-92 season.
- With three more double-figure showings to start the 2020-21 campaign, Clay increased his streak to 27-straight games before it ended with a five-point showing at Jacksonville State on Dec. 16, 2020. It marked the second-longest by a Golden Eagle since 1970-71 to only Best.
- Among four-year student-athletes (since 1970-71), no Golden Eagle recorded more double-digit scoring performances through his first two seasons in the purple and gold than Clay, who posted a whopping 50 between his freshman and sophomore campaigns.
- After posting 23 points in Tech's loss to Eastern Kentucky, Clay has increased his career double-figure scoring performances to 67, ranking 14th in team history.
- In Tech's close loss to Jacksonville State (12/13/20), Jr. Clay turned in his first career double-double and second-straight 20-point outing. He dished out a career-high 10 assists to go along with his 20 points.
- At EKU (1/9/21), the guard captured his second double-double of the year and his career with 15 points and 10 assists. He became the first Golden Eagle with two assist-led double-doubles in the same season since Jeremiah Samarrippas had two during the 2013-14 campaign.
- Clay exploded for a career-high 29 points at Austin Peay, finishing 8-for-16 from the floor and 9-of-12 from the charity stripe. He also connected on four triples.
- With one more steal against EKU, Clay ranks ninth in program history among all-time steals leaders, needing just three more to pass Frank Davis for eighth.
- After dishing out two dimes against EKU, Clay passed Anthony Fisher for 10th on the all-time career assists list for Tech. He needs just six more to pass Keyon Boyd for ninth.
- Following the EKU game on Feb. 15, 2021, Clay became just the second player in program history to rank in the top-25 in scoring, the top-10 in assists and the top-10 in steals on the career charts.
- He took home his first career OVC Freshman of the Week honors on Dec. 3, 2018 after averaging 17.5 points, 8.0 rebounds

TECH VS. THE OVC

Tech has several long-standing series with several programs both in-state and out. The Golden Eagles have matched up with 20 different opponents that were, at one time, a member of the OVC. In those match-ups, Tech owns a 608-717 record, but remove the two series with Murray State and Western Kentucky, and the Cookeville crew turns in a mark of 538-501.

and 2.5 assists in two games.

- Clay was named OVC Freshman of the Week two times during the 2018-19 campaign, including following his best scoring performance in the purple and gold. At Morehead State (Jan. 24, 2019), he dropped a career-high 26 points.
- The guard's 14.4 points per game represented the third-highest average for a freshman in program history, ranking only behind Kenny Sidwell's mark of 21.3 (1954-55) and Earl Wise's mark of 18.6 (1986-87).
- He teamed up with Hunter Vick (11.2) to become the first pair of Tech freshmen to average double figures in scoring since Pete Abuls (13.3) and Paul Chadwell (11.6) during the 1978-79 campaign.
- During the 2018-19 season, Clay posted 24 double-digit scoring efforts, the second-most in program history among Golden Eagle freshmen. Only Early Wise (25) posted more, during the 1986-87 season. He also represented just the fourth to reach 20 double-digit performances, joining Wise, Stephen Kite (21 in 1982-83) and Anthony Avery (20 in 1985-86).
- Despite missing the first three contests of the year due to COVID protocols, Clay currently ranks second in the OVC in scoring (16.4 ppg), fourth in steals (1.9 spg), fourth in 3-point field goals made per game (2.1), ninth in free-throw percentage (74.1) and 12th in assists (3.5 apg).

"QUOTABLE"

Former Florida Director of Athletics Jeremy Foley on Pelphrey

"I think Tennessee Tech hired an outstanding coach and an outstanding person. John Pelphrey had a huge role in building the basketball program here at Florida under Billy Donovan. He has obviously been a head coach and done extremely well. He is just what I would call a big time person and coach. I'm very excited for him and certainly know that Tennessee Tech will be pleased with the job John does."

KEISHAWN IS KEY

- Keishawn Davidson entered the 2020-21 campaign with plenty of momentum, turning in one of the better freshmen campaigns by a point guard in school history.
- Just one year after teammate Jr. Clay dished out 124 assists, Davidson surpassed his fellow backcourt partner's total with 131 helpers in 2019-20. Only Anthony Avery turned in more as a freshman, distributing 153 during the 1985-86 season.
- Davidson became just the fourth freshman in program history to lead the Golden Eagles in assists (Clay was the third), ranking third in the OVC with 4.4 dimes per game.
- Ranking in the top-10 in the OVC in assist/turnover ratio last year (1.7), Davidson ended his rookie campaign on a high note, compiling nine assists with zero turnovers at Jacksonville State.
- He became the first Golden Eagle to post at least eight helpers with no turnovers since Curtis Phillips Jr. did so against Boyce College during the 2017-18 campaign.
- During last year's exhibition contest, Davidson dazzled Tech fans with a show, posting 26 points (on 9-of-12 shooting & 6-of-7 from 3-point range) and eight rebounds.
- The Murfreesboro native lived up to the hype he drew in the Eblen Center that day, and league agreed, honoring him with the first OVC Freshman of Week honor of the year. He averaged 14.5 points and 8.0 assists and 3.0 rebounds in two games.
- In his first collegiate contest, he dropped a team-high 18 points and six assists. The rookie made zero turnovers while playing a team-high 33 minutes.
- The 18 points represented the most by a Tech freshman in his collegiate debut since Earl Wise dropped 27 against Bethel College on Nov. 29, 1986.
- It marked the most by a freshman in his debut again a Division I opponent since Anthony Avery scored 21 points against Louisiana (Nov. 30, 1985).
- It also stands as the most points by a freshman in his first Division I road contest since Paul Chadwell also had 18 at New Orleans (Nov. 24, 1978).
- Mark Burnett owns the program record for freshman points in his first Division I road competition, an impressive 20 in Tuscaloosa against No. 15 Alabama on Dec. 5, 1977.
- Davidson's six assists and zero turnovers matched the program's freshman record for number of assists (as well as fewest turnovers) in his collegiate debut set by Lanerryl Johnson on Nov. 10, 2012 against Crowley's Ridge.
- It represented the mark for a freshman against both a Division I opponent and road contest as well.
- For an encore, Davidson put together his first career double-double while leading Tech past Martin Methodist. He posted 11 points and 10 assists while snagging five rebounds as well.
- The 10 dimes made him the first Tech freshman with double digit helpers since Leigh Gayden had 10 against Toccoa Falls on Jan. 11, 2000.
- The double-double represented Tech's first with assists since Torrance Rowe scored 14 points with 10 dimes against Eastern Kentucky on Jan. 24, 2015. That contest also marked the last time a Golden Eagle posted 10 assists in a contest.
- As a freshman, he was named a team captain just prior to its contest at Lipscomb on Dec. 17, 2019.
- With his team-leading 17 points at Indiana, and his 18 points at Western Kentucky last season, Keishawn Davidson became the

TRANSFER IMPACT

- Damaria Franklin scored a team-high 21 points against the Gamecocks (12/13/20), producing the most points by a Tech player in his debut with the team since Ty Allen posted 25 at USF on Nov. 9, 2013. Franklin missed the first five games of the season due to COVID protocols.
- Representing one of 14 known Golden Eagles to call Knoxville his hometown in program history, CJ Gettelfinger became the first Tech player from Knoxville ever to score against the Vols on their home floor with a mid-range jumper in the first half of the Golden Eagles' loss on Friday.
- Ricky Norris (1994-95) and Jimmy Elliott (1982-85) represented the only known Tech Knoxvillians to ever face the Vols in their careers prior to Gettelfinger playing on Friday.
- Norris was the only member of the purple and gold to see the floor against the Vols in Knoxville, playing the final two minutes of the Nov. 27, 1994 match-up. Elliott scored two points in the Tech loss to Tennessee in Cookeville on Mar. 14, 1985.
- Graduate transfer Shandon Goldman turned in a season-high 13 points at Eastern Illinois, hitting a trio of triples with a team-high six rebounds.
- One game after hitting a career-high four triples at EKU, Goldman exploded for two more careers highs against Belmont. He scored a game and career-best 19 points on 7-for-8 shooting, sinking 5-of-6 tries from beyond the arc.

- Goldman turned in the best game of his career in Tech's win over EIU, tallying career-highs of 20 points and 8 assists, as well as 11 rebounds, on his way to his first double-double in the purple and gold.
- Junior college transfer Marcus Hopkins was a beast in the win over TSU, setting career-highs of 10 points and six rebounds in just 18 minutes of work. He snagged four of those boards on the offensive glass in a critical point in the second half.
- Franklin erupted at EIU, scoring a season-high 25 points behind four 3-pointers and a 10-for-16 showing from the floor. He added four boards in 33 minutes off the bench.
- At Austin Peay, Franklin added 22 points on a highly efficient 9-for-13 from the floor. He connected on 3-of-6 from downtown as well.

FANTASTIC FRESHMEN

- Freshmen forwards Austin Harvell and Kenny White Jr. have kicked off their Golden Eagle careers in remarkable fashion.
- White was averaging 7.4 points per game before sustaining a season-ending injury.
- Harvell recorded his first career double-double at Northern Kentucky with 12 points and 10 rebounds.
- In Martin, Harvell set new career-highs with four 3-pointers and 14 points. He also snagged a team-high eight boards.
- At Indiana, White(13) and Harvell (10) teamed up to become the first pair of Tech freshmen to score in double figures in a season opener since Nov. 29, 1975 when Jimmy Howell (18) and John C. Adams (15) accomplished the feat against Baptist College (now Baptist Health Sciences University).
- They also became the first pair of Golden Eagle freshmen to score in double digits against a Power 5 Conference opponent since Marc Glanton (11) and Kenneth Smith (13) managed it at Georgia (12/29/94).

Kentucky Head Coach John Calipari on Pelphrey

"What a great hire for Tennessee Tech. John Pelphrey is an absolute wonderful human being, first and foremost. He will be an instant hit in the community. As a coach, John is tenacious and has all the tools and abilities to establish a winning tradition at Tech. Golden Eagle fans have a great reason to be excited."

AMADOUS AND DONT'S

- Representing the first Tech player ever from Mali, and just the second Golden Eagle from Africa, Amadou Sylla joined Tech as a true sophomore after transferring from Iowa Western Community College.
- The big man made an instant impact, averaging 16.5 points and 9.0 rebounds while shooting 77.8 percent from the field through the team's first two game. For his efforts, he took home the 2019-20 season's first OVC Newcomer of the Week honors.
- Sylla kicked things off by hitting 6-of-7 tries from the floor at Western Kentucky, scoring 13 points while hauling in four rebounds.
- He turned things up a notch in the home-opener against Martin Methodist, recording his first career double-double while leading the contest with 20 points and 14 boards. He shot 8-of-11 from the field in just 24 minutes of action.
- At Lipscomb, the young post player collected his second double-digit rebounding performance of the year, hauling in 11 boards to lead the team.
- Over the summer, Sylla added 25 pounds of muscle to his 6-foot-8 frame. He tries to model his game after that of Basketball Hall of Famer Dennis Rodman, aiming to focus on rebounding and defense to help with his strengths.
- In his first start of the 2020-21 season (against SEMO), Sylla scored a season-high 13 points with seven rebounds, including the team's first six points of the game.

Former Tech guard Cade Crosland on Pelphrey

"I'm appreciative of Coach Pel for several reasons. He game me a chance to play to my senior season. You only get on of those and he made it happen for me. He took our team to Sparta [my hometown] to do some community service work. Sparta has and continues to take care of me, so it was really special to be able to go with our team and help out. I'm looking forward to watching our Golden Eagles this year and know they will be successful."

head coach John Pelphrey in his first season at the helm of the Golden Eagle program last year with his incredible work ethic, unselfish attitude and dedication to the team.

- After witnessing Smith putting in extra work at a hotel gym on a road trip, Pelphrey noted that the now senior's response to a simple question inspired him as much as anything last season.
- When asked why he was working out after a tough practice session, Smith simply told Pelphrey, "I want to be the best version of myself that I can be."
- Not long after, Smith was named a team captain, despite holding walk-on status and never playing more than half of his team's games in any given season.
- Over the summer, during the team's first in-person meeting (which was socially distanced), Pelphrey awarded the senior with a full scholarship following a video tribute that involved Smith's family (his little brother made the announcement at the end of the video).
- In the 2020-21 season opener at Indiana, Smith made his first career start while playing a career-high 18 minutes. He started each of the team's first four games this season.

DUAL-SPORT ATHLETE

- Junior guard Jamaal Thompson has one of the most interesting paths to the Golden Eagle roster, joining the team on Nov. 21 after spending his first two season at Tech as a defensive back on the Tech football team.
- Still expected to play on the gridiron in the spring, Thompson is the first Tech student-athlete to participate in both football and men's basketball since Derrick Gray.
- A center on the Tech hoops squad during the 1989-90 and 1991-92 campaigns and a defensive end for the Golden Eagle football team from 1989-92, Gray would go on to great success on the gridiron, eventually signing a free-agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals in 1993.
- After redshirting as a freshman at ETSU, Thompson followed current Tech head football coach Dewayne Alexander to Cookeville, and saw his first action at Tucker Stadium during the 2019 season as a sophomore.
- He made 20 tackles while playing in 11 of Tech's 12 contests last season. Thompson also recovered a fumble at Miami (Ohio) and tallied at least three tackles in three games.
- His cousin, Ladarius Vanlier, was an All-American running back and return man for the Golden Eagles from 2012-15.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

Tennessee Tech has seen a fair share of international players make the long journey to Cookeville to become a member of the Golden Eagle family over the years. The 2020-21 campaign will be no different with two players suiting up in the purple and gold after leaving their homes. Sophomore guard Dane Quest hails from Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Junior forward Amadou Sylla is a citizen of Bamako, Mali.

BIGGER THAN BASKETBALL

- Sophomore guard Dane Quest and junior guard Jamaal Thompson have been instrumental in helping Tech student-athletes work through a summer that saw social injustice reach new heights across the country.
- Both student-athletes became founding members of the University's student organization C.O.D.E. (Center of Diversity Education) promoting unity through diversity.
- Serving as the president of the organization, Thompson earned Tech Athletics' Unsung Leader Award for the month of October, which honors a varsity student-athlete who has made a positive impact on their team and the Tennessee Tech community as a whole, through his or her dedication to demonstrating leadership traits, such as; keep learning, growing and improving; follow through with excellence; accomplish more than expected; and inspire and motivate others.
- He has taken an active role in educating teammates and fellow students about racial equality and helped organize multiple podcasts over the summer and fall with broadcaster Dylan Vazzano to discuss social injustice with several student-athletes.
- A 4.0 student in the classroom, Thompson also helped organize a peaceful unity march on campus with student-athletes on October 15, capturing the attention of head coach John Pelphrey who said of Thompson, "This young man is going above and beyond with his servant leadership. We need to encourage, elevate and equip him and all student-athletes to continue what they are doing."

A FAMILY AFFAIR

- When head coach John Pelphrey took the Tennessee Tech job, he had no guarantees his children would follow him to Cookeville.
- His son, Jaxson, was the head manager at Alabama for three months and was promised a spot with the team for 2019-20 by new head coach Nate Oats.
- Jaxson made the decision to come along to Cookeville and join the Tech staff as a manager and returns for his second season with the Golden Eagles.
- Pelphrey's daughter, Grace, was a freshman member of the Crimson Tide's women's team in 2018-19.
- After speaking with Tech women's head coach Kim Rosamond, Grace also made the decision to transfer and is currently a junior member of the Golden Eagles this season. Last year, she played in five contests for the purple and gold, scoring five points and grabbing six rebounds.

TOPS IN THEIR STATES

- Three of Tech's players for the 2020-21 season boast a particularly impressive feat as part of their respective resumes, all finishing as finalists for the Mr. Basketball Award for their state during their high school careers.
- Junior guard Jr. Clay was a two-time finalist at the TSSAA Division II Class AA level while at The McCallie School in Chattanooga, earning the honor in 2017 and again in 2018.
- Transfer sophomore guard CJ Gettelfinger was one of three finalists at the TSSAA Division II Class A level in 2018 while competing for Grace Christian Academy in Knoxville.
- Freshman forward Kenny White Jr. was named a finalist for Kentucky's Mr. Basketball Award in 2020 while starring for Madisonville-North Hopkins High School in Madisonville, Ky.
- Head coach John Pelphrey, a University of Kentucky Hall of Famer, was a Mr. Basketball Award winner during his high school days, claiming the honor for Paintsville High School in 1987.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

- The 2020-21 Tech roster features 15 players (13 scholarship student-athletes) representing six states and three countries.
- Six Golden Eagle players hail from the state Tennessee, while Arkansas and Illinois each boast two Tech players. Alabama, California and Kentucky are represented by one Tech player each.
- Two international players round out the roster, including one Golden Eagle from Canada and another from Mali.
- Tech has one graduate student, one senior, five juniors, four sophomores and four true freshmen.
- Nine Golden Eagles stand 6-foot-5 or taller while the other six measure in at 6-foot-4 or shorter.
- Nine members are new to the Tech squad for 2020-21, including Damaria Franklin, CJ Gettelfinger, Shandon Goldman, Austin Harvell, Marcus Hopkins, Taelon Peter, Jalen Stayton, Jamaal Thompson and Kenny White Jr.

INEXPERIENCED BUNCH

- While the 2020-21 Golden Eagles welcomed in nine new faces to the roster this season, that number doesn't show just how little this team spent together coming into the season. With just six returners from last year's squad, the team dealt with the abscence of summer practice as well as the effects of the COVID-19 virus, fielding very few practices with a full squad while adhering to health and safety protocols.
- While the team did feature 89 total starts at the Division I level heading into the season, 31 more than last year's squad, 88 of that total was from just four players.
- Tech players that made their Division I debut in 2020-21 are junior guard Damaria Franklin, freshman guard Taelon Peter, junior center Marcus Hopkins, freshman forward Kenny White Jr., freshman forward Jalen Stayton, freshman forward Austin Harvell and junior guard Jamaal Thompson.
- In addition to those seven players, senior guard Maverick Smith and graduate transfer forward Shandon Goldman made their first career starts at the Division I level.
- CJ Gettelfinger, who spent the 2019-20 campaign at Oakland University, could still make his first career start after earning immediate eligibility from the NCAA on Dec. 3, 2020.

ENUFF IS ENUFF

This season, the Tennessee Tech men's basketball team will wear warm-up shirts bearing a social justice message special to the team.

"This action of wearing a shirt represents the way we intend to treat each other on this team. It represents the way we, as a team, intend to treat all those around us. It represents the way we hope to influence all those around us to treat all those around them," the players said about how they planned to become a part of the national conversation on racism.

The message on the shirts, Enuff is Enuff, was chosen purposefully by the team.

The players say they chose "enuff," because the misspelling stands out, catches the eye, and can make us uncomfortable.

"We understand that wearing a shirt is essentially words; we understand that actions will always speak louder than words. However, the purpose of wearing such a shirt is to bring attention to an issue"

In addition, a Unity patch, created by the National Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, will be worn on the uniforms of all OVC basketball teams.

Named the 13th head coach in Tennessee Tech men's basketball history on Friday, Apr. 12, 2019, former University of Kentucky All-American and Hall of Famer JOHN PELPHREY is in his second season at the helm of the Golden Eagle program.

In his first year with the program, Pelphrey saw a lot of growth from the young squad, earning six of the team's nine victories over the final 14 games. Tech finished just a game out from earning a berth into the OVC Tournament, completing the year ranked in the top-four in the league in assists per game (13.9), steals per game (6.9) and 3-point field goals made per game (8.3).

Sophomore guard Jr. Clay earned All-OVC Second Team honors for the second time in his career and first under the direction of Pelphrey. Other accolades on the year went to sophomore forward Amadou Sylla (OVC Newcomer of the Week once) and freshman guard Keishawn Davidson (OVC Freshman of the Week once).

Boasting over 25 years of Division I coaching experience, Pelphrey's most recent stop prior to the move to Tech came as the associate head coach at the University of Alabama under former head coach Avery Johnson. He spent three seasons (2016-19) with the Crimson Tide, assisting the staff in the recruiting and signing of one of the top classes in school history, including eventual NBA Lottery pick Collin Sexton.

The 2017 signing class boasted two players among the top-25 recruits in the country, both five-star recruits as listed by Rivals.com, as well as two four-star players and a three-star, while four of the five signees were ranked among the top-100 players in the nation, according to the site. Combined, the Alabama signing class was ranked as high as No. 6 in the nation.

Prior to spending time as an analyst for ESPN and the SEC Network throughout the 2015-16 basketball season, Pelphrey spent four seasons (2011-15) in what was his second stint as an assistant coach under former head coach Billy Donovan at the University of Florida. In his 10 total years with the Gators, Pelphrey was instrumental in helping the team claim four SEC championships and secure seven total NCAA Tournament bids, including appearances in the 2000 national championship game, the 2014 Final Four, the 2012 and 2013 Elite Eight and a Sweet 16 showing in 1999.

In between his two stops at Florida, the Paintsville, Ky. native earned head coach opportunities at the University of South Alabama for five seasons from 2002-07 and the University of Arkansas for four seasons from 2007-11. Pelphrey holds a career 149-126 record (.542) as head coach, including an 80-67 (.544) mark at South Alabama and a record of 69-59 (.539) at Arkansas.

In 2007, Pelphrey was selected to lead the Arkansas program and responded by guiding the team to 23 wins in 2007-08, the best total by a first-year coach in the school's history. They went on to an appearance in the SEC Tournament final, reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament. That 2007-08 Razorbacks finished with a 23-12 record, including an impressive 6-2 mark against ranked opponents. The 23 wins were the most at Arkansas since 1999.

Throughout his stint as the Razorbacks' head coach, Pelphrey coached four All-SEC performers (Sonny Weems, Michael Washington, Courtney Fortson, Rotnei Clarke) and two SEC All-Freshman honorees (Fortson, Marshawn Powell). He was also instrumental in recruiting eventual All-SEC performer B.J. Young.

During his five seasons as the head coach of South Alabama, Pelphrey led the Jaguars to a Sun Belt regular season championship and a conference tournament title. That 2005-06 USA squad earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament after leading the Sun Belt Conference in scoring margin and 3-point defense. Earning Sun Belt Coach of the Year honors, Pelphrey guided South Alabama to a 24-7 mark, with the team improving its offensive output by 11 points over the previous season.

In his final season at USA, Pelphrey took the Jaguars to an appearance in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) following a 20-12 record, including a 13-5 mark in Sun Belt play.

Prior to Pelphrey's first stop in Gainesville as a Florida assistant, he spent two seasons on Donovan's staff at Marshall University, where the Thundering Herd went 18-9 in 1995 and 17-11 in 1996 after going 9-18 the year before they arrived. Prior to that, Pelphrey spent a season as an assistant coach under Eddie Sutton at Oklahoma State in 1994, where the Cowboys achieved a 24-10 record and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Throughout his time in the SEC, Pelphrey coached 14 players that were drafted in the NBA including World Champions: Udonis Haslem (3x), Mike Miller (2x), Matt Bonner (2x), Jason Williams and David Lee, who was also a 2-time NBA All-Star.

Pelphrey began his coaching career following one season playing professionally in France and Spain.

He played two years at Kentucky under Sutton and three under Rick Pitino. Part of UK's class known as "The Unforgettables," he was inducted into the Kentucky Hall of Fame in 2005 and named the Wildcats' Student-Athlete of the Year in 1989. His jersey number (No. 34) was retired in 1992. During his Kentucky career, he started 90 of 114 games and finished with a career scoring average of 11.0 points.

Named Mr. Basketball in the state of Kentucky as a senior at Paintsville High School in 1987, he scored 2,477 points and grabbed 1,316 rebounds in his career.

Pelphrey is married to the former Tracy Lyon and they have a son, Jaxson, and a daughter, Grace.

HOOPER EBLEN CENTER

404-189
Overall Record in 44 Seasons at HEC

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

Originally opened back in 1977, the Hooper Eblen Center, named for former athlete and head coach Hooper Eblen, has provided a great advantage for the Golden Eagles over the years.

Tech has won nearly 70 percent of its contests at home since the Hoop was built. That number leaps to 73 percent since the new millenium began, with three undefeated seasons to show for it. In 2015-16, Tech nearly notched its fourth perfect season on the homecourt, posting a 14-1 mark, falling in the team's final home game of the season.

The Hoop has received many improvements over the past few years, including brand new seats and lighting, a state-of-the-art video board and a 3D floor projection system.

Tech will get 11 chances to send its fans home elated with a victory and the 2020-21 squad is poised to provide the place it calls home with yet another undefeated mark in "The Temple of Doom."

ON THE BIG BOARD

"The video board and all of the features it provides has been a huge enhancement to the gameday experience for fans attending games in Eblen Center."
– Mark Wilson, TTU Director of Athletics

Back and better than ever, the Eblen Center video board is set to provide all Golden Eagle fans the best experience possible, featuring exciting replays, enhanced graphics, post-game interviews with both coaches and players and of course, the 98.5 KISS cam.

TEMPLE OF DOOM

EBLEN CENTER BY THE NUMBERS

The Eblen Center enters its 44th season as the home to Golden Eagle basketball in 2019-20, and in that time it has provided a brutal atmosphere for opposing teams, going as far as to earn the nickname, "The Temple of Doom."

- Tennessee Tech is 404-189 (.681) in 44 seasons in the Eblen Center.
- Since the 2000 season, Tech is 192-76 (.716) in the Eblen Center.
- The Golden Eagles have won 41 of its 44 home openers in the Eblen Center.
- Tech basketball set a home win streak record of 33 games from Dec. 2, 2000 to Jan. 4, 2003.
- TTU defeated Vanderbilt, 72-71, in the arena's first basketball game on Nov. 26, 1977.
- The Golden Eagles finished the 2000-01, 2001-02 and 2004-05 seasons undefeated at home.
- The Eblen Center played host to a record-crowd of 10,352 when Tech hosted Tennessee in the opening round of the NIT.
